AN ACTIVE CAMPAIGN IS NOW PLANNED

Chairman C. E. Carothers, of the Republican Committee, Confers With Candidates Regarding Organization Work to Be Done

THE WOMEN ARE TO ASSIST

Prominent Leaders Are to Come Into the County to Speak In Behalf of the Ticket—Republicans Asked to Amalgamate Vote of the County

Chairman C. E. Carothers of the Washington County Republican committee, and Mrs. T. L. McCullough of Midway, vice chairman of the committee, are busily engaged in completing plans for an active campaign for the Republican ticket this fall.

Last week Chairman Carothers and Mrs. McCullough had a conference with the congressional and legislative candidates at which time the coming campaign was thoroughly discussed from all angles. The matter of the personnel of the county executive committee was considered and suggestions for this body made by the candidates and others present. The announcement of the committee will be made in a few days.

The active management of the campaign in this county will be in charge of the executive committee, under direction of Chairman Carothers. The finance committee will also be announced in a few days. The meeting was a most harmonious one and all present evinced a keen interest in the coming campaign and expressed the desire to do their best to make it a most successful one.

"Washington county has a duty to perform this fall," said Chairman Carothers, discussing the campaign. "It always has a record of rolling up a big vote for the Republican national ticket, but this fall we hope to make the vote particularly impressive. It will be futile to return President Coolidge to the White House without a congress back of him. Dr. Temple was one of the 153 members of the house of representatives who stood loyally back of the President in the last session of Congress. We ought to make it certain that Dr. Temple be returned to Washington by an increased majority.

"The county committee will devote every energy at its command and wage an active campaign from now on until the election to keep Washington county on the honor roll and elect our entire ticket from top to bottom. Mrs. McCullough, our vice chairman, has taken hold in fine shape and will devote her energies to arousing the women voters. We appeal to all Republicans in the county to work to get out a full vote on November 4."

It is tentatively planned to hold a number of mass meetings throughout the county this fall. Speakers of prominence will be secured. Congressman Theodore Burton, of Cleveland, O., who made the keynote speech at the Cleveland convention, will be one of the speakers to come into this county, appearing here the latter part of next month. Senator Frank B. Willis, of Ohio, who has served in the house with Dr. Temple, will be another speaker. Gov. Gifford Pinchot will also be here and in Greene county on October 23 to urge the election of the entire ticket from President Coolidge down, although he will be especially interested in the candidates for the state legislature.

Voters are reminded that Thursday, September 4, is the last day to be assessed in order to vote November 4, and October 4 is the last day to pay taxes. Voters in Washington and Monongahela, third class cities, will be personally registered on September 4 and 16, and October 4.

In the boroughs and townships, the assessors will sit at the polling places on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 2 and 3. These are the last days to be assessed in order to vote in November. On these days the voters residents of boroughs and townships will have the opportunity of making sure that they are on the voting lists.

Darrow Is To Resume Effort To Save Boys

Chicago, August 25.— When the hearing to determine whether mitigating circumstances attended the murder of Robert Franks is resumed [illegible] Clarence S. Darrow will renew his effort to save Nathan F. Leopold Jr., and Richard Loeb from the gallows. It will be his third court day of argument.

The chief defense counsel expects to devote considerable time to discussing the complete life history of the two defendants.

Darrow next will analyze the executions that have taken place here and survey the cases of those who were hanged after pleading guilty.

At the close of his argument Darrow will start what he has termed "a real plea for mercy at the hands of the court." His argument may consume the entire day but if he should finish before the afternoon recess, Benjamin Bachrach, his associate will begin speaking. He will close the argument for the defense.

State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe will make the final argument for the prosecution and the last argument in the present proceedings. He is prepared to talk at least three days. He will insist that the slayers of the Franks boy be hanged.

AN ATTEMPT TO PASS AN AUTO PROVES FATAL

On the Donora-Monongahela road, just below Donora, near the Americo park Joe Fedorson, aged 35, of Donora, broke his neck death being instantaneous while driving a motorcycle when he attempted to pass another machine and plunged headlong into a large Garfield truck coming in the opposite direction.

Fedorson was driving towards Monongahela on a motorcycle to which was attached a side car and driving at a rapid rate of speed he passed a machine going in the same direction In passing the car, the wheels of the sidecar got in the street car tracks, and in an effort to free itself, the motorcycle skidded and overturned, and plunged into a large truck that happened along at just that time. The truck, driven by William T. Morris and William Wackerle of Elizabeth, was enroute to Jefferson, Greene county.

The man was taken to the office of Dr. Day of Donora, where it was learned he suffered a broken neck and was beyond medical assistance. The body was removed to the undertaking establishment of J. A. Rabe, and is being held there until word is received from relatives of other cities.

The deceased is well known in Donora, an employe of the American Steel and Wire company, and boarded at Fifteenth street.

The accident and tragedy of last night for some time held up traffic on the road, and before the congestion was eliminated hundreds of cars were in line awaiting the signal to go.

CAMPING SEASON QUITE SUCCESSFUL

Camping Committee, Under Its Chairman, J. B. Schafer, Makes Report Season Most Successful Ever Operated In This Section

270 BOYS ARE PRESENT

Periods Range From One to Two Weeks—Instruction Given Is of the Highest Degree—About 1200 People Took Advantage of the Visiting Days

At the Executive committee meeting of the Boy Scout Council, the Camping committee, under its chairman, J. B. Schafer, of Charleroi, made its report of a most successful camping season, held at Camp Underwood near Clarksville, on the Underwood farm. Preliminary to this report the chairman stated that without a doubt this camp was the most successful Boy Scout camp that had ever been operated in this section. Flattering commendation was received from visitors, and special commendations were received from the Scout authorities of the Pittsburgh district upon the manner of operation and conduct of the camp.

In their preliminary report it was shown that about 270 boys attended this camp for the period of from one to two weeks, and that during the time that the camp was operated, from July 21 to August 13, there had been no illness of any sort and but few minor injuries to mar the health of the boys.

The instruction given was of the highest degree, as was shown by the fact that about 450 tests were passed by the boys in camp, which is an average of about two tests each. In the swimming program this year the Brink system was used and about 55 boys who were non-swimmers were taugh to swim during their stop in camp. Many of the boys passed their 50-yard test.

It was estimated that about 1,200 visitors took advantage of the visiting days that were set aside by the camp, to see what the Scouts did while at camp. The camp was operated at a cost of $5 per boy a week, and the financial report of the committee shows that there will be no deficit when all bills are paid.

A number of improvements were made on the camp this year, such as the swimming pool, which will be used next year; installation of a high grade water purifier under the supervision of the Tri-Cities Water Co.; purchasing of 15 new 16x16 pyramidal tents; and the athletic field including a regulation baseball field with backstop.

This camp report was accepted very favorably by the Executive committee and the Camping committee commended on its fine work, in putting up such a fine, up-to-date, attractive camp for the boys.

Airmen Are Just One Hop From The Americnn Continent

Halifax, N. S., August 25—America's around-the-world airmen are just one hop from the North American continent today as they pause to change motors at Ivigtut, Greenland.

The next flight, the last hazardous over-the-water trip of their adventure, will take them to Indian Harbor, Labrador.

The two fliers—Lieutenant Lowell Smith and Lieutenant Eric Nelson—arrived at Ivigtut yesterday after a speedy, uneventful trip from Frederiksdal. The fliers hopped off at 1:50 p. m. (Greenwich meantime) and arrived at Ivigtut at 4:09 p. m. (Greenwich meantime.)

According to advices received here they flew low along the western coast of Greenland and kept a lookout for a trace of Lieutenant Locatelli, missing Italian pilot, who started with them from Reykjavik, Iceland. They saw no signs of him.

Upon arriving at Ivigtut the fliers' first questions were concerning news of Locatelli. They were told native Greenlanders had heard what they thought to be the roar of a motor near Ivigtut and had arranged scouting expeditions up and down the shore.

According to schedule the fliers are now just four jumps removed from home shores. From Ivigtut they will sail to Indian harbor, then down the eastern coast of North America with stops at Hawkes Bay, Picton and then the arrival in Boston.

At Fictou the two airmen will be joined by Lieutenant Leigh Wade, third member of the globe circling party. A new plane will be given to him at Picton and he will finish the flight with his two companions of the air.

One Of Three Men Electrocuted Is To Be Buried Today

Funeral services for Frank Buchanan, 64 years old, of Hayes avenue, Washington, one of the three men electrocuted when they were caught on a wire carrying 25,000 volts of electricity which had been knocked to the ground when struck last Friday night, will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of his son, Thomas Buchanan, 504 Addison street. Interment will be in the Washington cemetery.

Funeral services of the Sisul brothers, Joe and Tony, who were killed when they went to see if they could do anything to help Mr. Buchanan, who had already met instant death, will be held tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at the Church of the Immaculate Conception. Interment will be in the Roman Catholic cemetery.

That the Sisul brothers had given their lives in an effort to help Buchanan became known on Saturday when Deputy Coroner A. Blaine Day continued an investigation into the tragic death of the trio.

Additional facts were secured yesterday, which prove that the high tension wire was knocked to the ground when struck by lightning during the terrific storm of last Friday night. A Mrs. Gorby, who lives near the scene, stated that she saw the lightning strike the wire about 10:40 o'clock.

Buchanan left the gas plant at the Hazel No. 2 plant at 11 o'clock Friday night. John McVedovich, of the Gordon Valley section, saw Buchanan's lifeless body and gave the alarm. The Sisul brothers, McVedovich, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Zaworski went to [illegible] the advance and the other three saw them stricken dead as they approached the body of Buchanan.

Buchanan, who had resided in Washington for the past 12 years, lived alone in a house in Hayes avenue. He came to the county seat from West Virginia, and his wife died several years ago. He is survived by three sons and one daughter, as follows: Thomas Earl and Everett, all of Washington, and Mrs. Effie Paul, of Parkersburg, W. Va. The following four sisters also survive: Mrs. Vine White, Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Libby Deation and Mrs. James Nicholson of Ravenswood, W. Va., and Mrs. Plas Spencer of Washington. He had been employed at the Hazel No. 2 producer plant for some time.

The Sisul brothers were both married. Tony is survived by eight children besides his wife. He had worked at the Hazel No. 2 factory since 1918. His brother leaves a wife and five children. He had also been employed at the Hazel No. 2 factory for several years.

All three men were well regarded by the company and considered excellent workmen.

KILBORN HERE IN THE MILK SITUATION

J. R. Kilborn, of the state board of health, is in Monongahela and will remain indefinitely to conduct an extensive survey of the milk situation in that district.

Last week Mr. Kilborn visited several dairies and secured samples of milk, while a large number of samples were secured from delivery wagons and various peddlers of milk on the street. Several of these have been submitted to the analysis laboratories at Harrisburg and do not meet the [illegible] test shows the samples dirty and unfit for consumption, while others indicated a lack in necessary vitamines and butter fats. Continuing his work, Mr. Kilborn will secure samples of milk from every Monongahela dealer while every dairy will be visited in that district and the matter of sanitation will be investigated. Mr. Kilborn made no statement regarding the sanitation at several dairies and creameries which he visited in the Monongahela vicinity last week expecting to submit his report only to the state department of health.

During Mr. Kilborn's stay he will be assisted by the Monongahela board of health in conducting his survey.

For some time Monongahela council has had in its possession an ordinance prepared by the state health department and sponsored by the board of health which indicates the sanitary conditions which must be maintained at all dairies and creameries and also requires a high standard of purity butter fat content of all milk dispensed in the city limits. No action has been taken on this important measure although practically all cities in Pennsylvania have adopted it. Mr. Kilborn stated that this ordinance was in this district when the next session of the city council convened he would addresss the council and the result of the milk tests will be shown the members in an effort to have the ordinance passed at once. It is unlikely that Mr. Kilborn will issue any further statement regarding his activities.

ONE IN HOSPITAL, ONE JAILED, AUTO MISHAP

SATURDAY NIGHT BLAZE CAUSES $2,000 LOSS

Fire of unknown origin late Saturday night completely destroyed a two-story frame dwelling located on the West Newton road, about one-eighth of a mile from Allen's crossing, near Belle Vernon, forcing the occupants to flee in their night clothing. The North Belle Vernon and [illegible] Monessen Fire departments were called to the scene of the flames, but were unable to cope with the blaze that had gained rapid headway, and the house, with all the furnishings, burned to the ground with an estimated loss of approximately $2,000.

The house was owned by Joseph Leone of Monessen, and was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Artie Berganasco and family. The family were awakened Saturday night by the smoke, which filled the house, and by the time they had gained the first floor, their home was a mass of flames.

James Edwards of McKeesport is a patient in the Memorial hospital, suffering from cuts and bruises, and William Rolason, also of McKeesport, is in the Monongahela jail, as a result of an automobile accident which occurred on the Elizabeth road, near the Monongahela bridge, last night at 7:30.

The men, in company with two women, had been drinking heavily, and while driving at a fair rate of speed collided with a machine parked along the road, driven by Andy Nagel. Neither Nagel, his wife nor daughters who were in the machine, were hurt in the collision. The two women in the offending car made their escape, but Edwards, who was badly cut was rushed to the hospital, while Rolason was taken into custody.

THE SELF-EXILED SENATORS.

That row between the Republicans and Democrats of the Rhode Island legislature, later developing into a sham controversy between the authorities of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, now seems to have become matter for grave concern on the part of the friends of C andidate Coolidge. To the average reader the facts as to the original row are still involved in obscurity. It is known that the Democrats said the Republican Senators ran away to block legislation and that the fugitive Senators said they with a bomb, but why was it necessary for them to flee all the way across the line into Massachusetts? Later it was reported that Governor Flynn had complained to Governor Cox of "the outrageous action of the State police of Massachusetts," who, though with knowledge of their identity, caused "certain Rhode Island officials to be arrested and placed under bail as suspicious characters."

At the risk of being suspected of a ot unnatural partisanship, the pringfield Republican then emphatally asserted that Massachusetts ad "the most pacific and most neual intentions" toward the Senators om a sister commonwealth who had ught asylum within its bord rs. resumably the "certain Rhode Isnd officials," after Governor Flynn's mplaint, were no longer treated as uspicious characters." It would alappear that they found Rutland, ass., a fairly agreeable place of reige, with movies and other means of assing the time. In any case it is rtain that they stuck to their asylum," for now, after nearly two onths, the Boston Herald, indifferit to the rights of refugees to sanctuary, curtly admonished the exiles to eturn home—as follows:

"Every day they linger on at Rutand they damage the dignity of their tate so much the more. Every day hey continue their play of abiding in heir Massachussets 'refuge' they imeril the five electoral votes which ught to be cast for Calvin Coolidge y the traditionally Republican State f Rhode Island."

Can even devotion to the alleged otten borough system of their State keep the Republictn Senators of Rhode Island on foreign soil in the resence of such a risk as this? Is t not better to face even a "bomb" han such just reproach in the very ouse of one's friends? It would pe ighly interehting to learn just what s their reaction to this appeal to arty loyalty and what they intend to o about it. At this distance it ooks like a case for the psy holoists, perhaps even for the alienists nd psychiatrists, for surely the hisory of American politics from the ery beginning can show nothing so reposterous, nothing so suggestive f midsummer madness, as this whole ffair.

"No'm," was the answer. "I'm just lad 'cause you don't expect me to ake baths any more."

DEMARCO MEETS TOUGH FOE IN TOMMY O'BRIEN

That Cuddy DeMarco - Tommy O'Brien scrap, one of three ten-rounders that will go to make up the card at the Queensboro Stadium, New York, this evening, should be a hummer. Somehow the Charleroi lightweight, on the strength of his work against Jack Bernstein and other good boys, is looming up as the favorite. It should not be lost sight of that O'Brien has been compiling quite a record and has been developing something of a punch.

O'Brien, who is a real war veteran and had one of his legs shattered by shrapnel, is only 24 years old, but has been fighting in the ring almost seven years. Tommy beat Pinkey Mitchell, dropping him twice; had Johnny Dundee down for a count of seven, fought Johnny Mendelson twice and sent him to the canvas five times in the second engagement, outpointed Joe Jawson and Ever Hammer, stopped Elino Flores, Pete August, K. O. Dennis and several others, including Jimmy Hill and Harry Holmes, a year or so ago, successes will not daunt the redoubtable Cuddy when he steps into the ring.

GIANTS' LOSS IN THE WINDY CITY LEAVES LEAD ONLY 4 GAMES

Individual flares lit the major league sky as both New York teams struggled to retain their first place positions during the week which ended yesterday.

Washington, launching a new offensive against the Tigers and Yanks, won its seventh straight game yesterday and advanced to within one point of the champions as the latter lost to Detroit, which still haunts the two leaders despite a disastrous week. Other teams are distanced.

The Giants hold a four-game lead over Pittsburgh, thanks to the aid of Brooklyn, who beat back the Pirate threat in three straight games and converted spectacular pitching into 14 victories in 17 games before being halted yesterday by the Cards who won a double-header.

The Phillies open a series at Forbes field today—a double-header.

"UNGUARDED WOMEN" AT THE COYLE THEATRE

Alan Crosland makes his debut as a Paramount producer with the release of "Unguarded Women," which begins today at the Coyle Theatre for three days. Advance reports have it that the director of "Enemies of Women, "Under the Red Robe" and "Three Weeks" has surpassed all of his previous efforts. We may therefore look for the ultimate in screen plays when this production is flashed on the local silver sheet. China, with its age-old civilization is the interesting background, and Richard Dix is the ideal type of "the man of honor."

No bulging, blowing out or drying up!

IMPORTANT NOTES ON CANNING

The following estimates may be used as a general guide in determining the amount of food required for canning vegetables:

1½ lbs. spinach	1 pt.
1 lb. chard	1 pt.
12-15 baby beets	1 pt.
20 carrots	1 pt.
¾ lb. string beans	1 pt.
2 qts. peas	1 pt.
4 small ears of corn	1 pt.

Pack the vegetables loosely in clean, tested jars to within one-half inch of the top, or one inch if corn is being canned. Shake the jars lightly but do not press down the vegetables with a spoon.

From the New Butterick Cook Book

THERE are two important things a jar rubber must do if it is to make a perfect seal—first it must stretch, then it must "set." If it fails to do these two things, it will bulge, blow out, or dry up.

A jar rubber must have just enough stretch for you to slip it easily around the neck of the jar. If it stretches too much it cannot snap back to its original size—or "set." The "set" must be so snug and close that no air can steal in once your jar is sealed. Only then can you be sure of the safety of your season's pack.

"U. S." Jar Rubbers come to you tested for stretch and "set"

The largest rubber organization in the world—the United States Rubber Company—makes "U. S." Jar Rubbers.

From their own plantations in Sumatra comes the high grade rubber used in "U. S." Jar Rubbers. In their own great experimental laboratories where many a rubber problem has been solved, experts developed the formula for these superior jar rubbers. They come to you already tested for stretch and "set"—tested against bulging and blowing out.

No matter what method of canning you use, you can depend on tested "U. S." Jar Rubbers to give you all the security jar rubbers can give against loss from spoiling.

Ask your dealer for "U. S." Jar Rubbers.

GASTONVILLE FURNISHES PLENTY OF THRILL

Gastonville, the Triple Link League champions, made Charleroi step lively Saturday to beat them on the Charleroi diamond. They evidenced surprising form, and were beaten only in the last inning, when Anderson hit a two-base blow to right, and scored from third, following a sacrifice by Costello, when Krosnoff bunted and the squeeze play was worked successfully. The score was 3-2.

The squeeze play is one of the prettiest on the diamond when it is successfully worked. As to the game, it was so close that it looked like an extra-inning argument when Charleroi went to bat in the last half of the ninth inning. Beatty was wild, and two of the runs scored by Gastonville occurred when the ball got away from Costello and, rolling under the grandstand, allowed two tallies to come in. The visitors threw another run away when Ostranter failed to score from third after hitting a scorching three-bagger to left, and clung to the bag on Sessi's sacrifice fly.

tors to five hits, and the score should have been 3-1 with proper support, but both teams were loose in their infielding with three errors each. Alex Smith, Charleroi's third baseman, who lives at Finleyville, was on third for Gastonville, and played his usual fine game. The score:

BEAVER FALLS ELKS TO PLAY HERE WEDNESDAY

Manager D. Cleve Mathers of the Charleroi Independents has a fine bill for Wednesday in that he has scheduled for 5:45 o'clock on the Charleroi diamond the famous Beaver Falls Elks. The Elks are one of the very best teams in a semi professional baseball as reflects Western Pennsylvaia—an aggregation that won in 1922 the semi-professional title, and in meeting them here on Wednesday night the locals must put up a fine article of ball to defeat them.

The Elks were here in 1923, being defeated at that time by Beatty, but whether he can again turn the trick will depend largely on the form he is he secures any hitting behind him. he secures any hittingbehindhim.

Manager Mathers will have his regular lineup in the field, and hopes to win.
